Christmas SPIRIT Foundation Frequently Asked Questions

The Christmas SPIRIT Foundation is the 501(c)(3) branch of the National Christmas Tree Association. The Christmas SPIRIT Foundation supports kids, families and the environment while enhancing the Christmas spirit.

What types of programs does the Christmas SPIRIT Foundation provide?

The Christmas SPIRIT Foundation was founded in August 2005. Since its founding the Christmas SPIRIT Foundation has:

- Provided Hurricane Relief to those affected by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita
- Implemented the Trees for Troops Program in conjunction with FedEx
- Provided age-appropriate books to underprivileged children and their families
- Provided food, clothing and other items for abused children
- Supported recycling efforts for Real Christmas Trees

Who else does the Christmas SPIRIT Foundation work with?

The Foundation receives support from corporations and organizations, including FedEx, Help America Foundation, Cost Plus World Market, SATO America, Sundt Foundation and Enterprise Rent-A-Car Foundation.

The Trees for Troops program is listed as an America Supports You Homefront Group resource on the Department of Defense Community Relations website.
